25th Annual Festival of the Arts Jan. 9-10 in downtown Cape

POSTED: December 28, 2009

The Rotary Club of Cape Coral will be holding its 25th Annual Cape Coral Festival of the Arts Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 9 and 10, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily.

As one of Southwest Florida's largest art shows, the event showcases the works of over 300 juried artists and artisans featuring fine art, sculpture, pottery, jewelry, photography, metal works, mixed media and much more. It is recognized by "Sunshine Artist Magazine" as one of the 75 Best Arts and Crafts Show in the nation.

The festival takes place on Cape Coral Parkway in downtown Cape Coral between Del Prado Boulevard and Vincennes. Free admission and parking will be provided along with area's largest collection of art, food and fun for the whole family.

The festival is produced by The Rotary Club of Cape Coral and the city of Cape Coral. Event sponsors include the Cape Coral Community Redevelopment Agency, Realmark Development, The Fort Myers News-Press, Direct Impressions, Lampe Family Chiropractic, Intergraph-ic, Kraft Construction, LCEC, Community Self Storage, GEICO, MetroPCS, eMarketing, NBC-2 & NBC-2.com, LITE 93.7 FM and Happenings Magazine.

For more information on the art festival, call 239-549-5615 or visit www.capecoralfesti-val.com.
